by Sydney Raelynn Holley

What' that you say?

My skin's not right?

Though my mission is clear

And my future is bright!

What's that you say?

You've changed your mind,

You have put all hard feelings far far behind!

What's that you say?

So now I'm in?

My new career fan finally begin!

What's that you say?

I'm an asset to the team?

You think that feeling will boost my self esteem?

What's that you say?

I've made history?

You think to me that is a mystery?

Here's what I say,

I've known for so long,

That if you give me a chance,

I can prove myself strong!

You see, it is not the making history that matters to me,

It's being given the chance to be what I was born to be!!! :)
